

October 2011

Jerrold Kaufman

Department of Sociology, University of Chicago
1126 E. 59th Street
Chicago, IL 60637
jckaufman@uchicago.edu

EDUCATION

- 2011-present University of Chicago, Chicago, Illinois
Ph.D. Student, Sociology
- 2009-2011 University of Central Florida, Orlando, Florida
M.A., Applied Sociology
- 2004-07 Asbury Theological Seminary, Orlando, Florida
M.Div., Social Ethics
- 1997-2001 Huntington University, Huntington, Indiana
B.S., Educational Ministries; Minor: Bible and Religion

RESEARCH AND TEACHING INTERESTS

Race/Ethnic/Minority Relations, Stratification, Social Change, Urban Sociology, Race and Religion

MANUSCRIPTS UNDER REVIEW

- 2011 “Location, Location, Location! The Impact of Place of Residency on Forming Racial Attitudes among Urban and Regional Migrants.” Co-authored by J. Scott Carter and Shannon K. Carter. Under Review, Social Forces.

MANUSCRIPTS IN PROGRESS

- 2011 “Boundary Blurring: The Declining Significance of Place and the Homogenization of Whites’ Attitudes toward Affirmative Action.” Co-authored by J. Scott Carter and Shannon K. Carter.
- 2011 “(Re)Framing Racial Inequality: Religion, Cultural Complexity, and White’s Beliefs about Racial Inequality.”

CONFERENCE PRESENTATIONS

- 2011 “The Effects of Migration on Beliefs about Affirmative Action.” Southern Sociological Society, Jacksonville, FL. Co-authored by J. Scott Carter and Shannon K. Carter.

- 2011 “Location, Location, Location! The Impact of Place of Residency on Forming Racial Attitudes among Urban and Regional Migrants.” American Sociological Association, Las Vegas, NV. Co-authored by J. Scott Carter and Shannon K. Carter.

HONORS AND AWARDS

- 2011 University Fellowship Award, University of Chicago
- 2011 University of Central Florida, Department of Sociology, Outstanding Graduate Student Paper for “Location, Location, Location! The Impact of Place of Residency on Forming Racial Attitudes among Urban and Regional Migrants” (co-authored by J. Scott Carter and Shannon K. Carter)
- 2011 Alpha Kappa Delta International Sociology Honor Society
- 2010 Phi Kappa Phi National Honor Society
- 2009 Provost’s Graduate Fellowship, University of Central Florida
- 2007 Theta Phi Honor Society, Asbury Theological Seminary
- 2007 Zondervan Hebrew Biblical Languages Award, Asbury Theological Seminary
- 2001 NAIA All American Scholar Athlete, Huntington University
- 2000 Chi Alpha Sigma Student-Athlete Honor Society, Huntington University
- 1999 Alpha Chi Honor Society, Huntington University

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

- Jan 2011 - May 2011 Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of Central Florida
Racial and Ethnic Minorities, J. Scott Carter
- Graded papers, engaged students in online discussion, answered course questions
- Sept 2010 - Dec 2011 Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of Central Florida
Social Problems and Gender and Society, Joan Morris
- Graded papers, engaged students in online discussion, answered course questions
- June 2010 - Aug 2011 Graduate Teaching Assistant, University of Central Florida
Social Problems, J. Scott Carter
- Graded papers, engaged students in online discussion, answered course questions

- May 2007- May 2009 Graduate Teaching Assistant, Asbury Theological Seminary
Church History and Method and Praxis, Zaida Maldonado Perez
- Designed courses, graded papers and quizzes, engaged students in online discussion, answered course questions

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 11/2007-5/2010 Tutor, A to Z Tutoring
- Tutored elementary and middle school students from low-income families in Math and English
- 10/2008-11/2009 Regional Coordinator, Justice for Our Neighbors
- Resource development and community outreach for a non-profit that provides free immigration legal services to immigrants and refugees in Central Florida

PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

- 2010 Graduate Teaching Assistant Certificate, University of Central Florida
- Completed a 12 week, non-credit course that prepares graduate students to work as graduate teaching assistants and associates. The course instructs students on teaching and learning styles, classroom management, course design and preparation, ethical and legal issues, and assessments and feedback

COMMUNITY SERVICE

- 2011 Life Course Mentor, Jobs Partnership of Florida
- The Orlando Jobs Partnership provides life and job training for the chronically under- and unemployed. I served as a group mentor for the 12-week program, working with a group of 6 men as they worked through the course curriculum and training
- 2009 – pres. Vice President, Board of Directors, Doma International
- Doma International is a US-based nonprofit that works domestically and internationally in early intervention, crisis prevention, and long term care. They work with orphaned children, young mothers, and young families. My responsibilities include strategic planning and leading international trips

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- 2009-pres. Southern Sociological Society
2009-pres. American Sociological Association